

How to register for the Energy Progress & Innovation Conference

If you have not created a profile account on our registration site before, you must do so before you can register. Click here to follow the link to create a new profile. This step can be done any time prior to registering. The name and contact information on this profile should be the primary booth contact person. This information will be included in the conference program book.

Once you create your account, please keep your username and password in a safe place for easy access because it will be required for any future registrations. If you can't remember your username or password, please call us at 701-224-5600 or 1-877-846-9387 and our staff will be happy to help you.

Please note that anytime it says "Student", the term "Student" also applies to organization contacts and employees.

The screenshot shows the website header with the BSC logo and "CONTINUING EDUCATION" text. A search bar and "GO" button are on the right. Below the header, a green navigation bar contains "You are not logged in. LOGIN/CREATE ACCOUNT" and "VIEW CART (0)". A left sidebar lists various categories like "ALL CLASSES", "ONLINE CLASSES", etc. The main content area features a "Thank you for your support." message and a "Welcome to Bismarck State College Continuing Education" heading. A red arrow points from a yellow callout box to the "LOGIN/CREATE ACCOUNT" link. The callout box contains the text: "Start by clicking here to log in or to find the link to create a new profile."
